What is your balance made up of?

Preserved benefit — $345,814.01

Benefits that can't be accessed until you've satisfied a condition of release.

Restricted non-preserved benefit — $0.00

Generally, restricted non-preserved benefits can be accessed in certain circumstances when you terminate employment with an employer who had contributed to UniSuper on your behalf. Restricted non-preserved benefits can also be accessed if you meet a condition of release.

Unrestricted non-preserved benefit — $0.00

Unrestricted non-preserved benefits can generally be accessed at any time, regardless of your age, employment situation or financial position, and are usually made up of benefits that you have already become entitled to, but have voluntarily decided to keep within the super system (for example if you have reached age 65 but you are still working).

Conditions of release may apply to your super. Learn more about accessing your super
